

A SEA OF CALM.
FOR LOVE THAT MAKES WAVES.

TRIDENT, NARIMAN POINT, MUMBAI | MAHARASHTRA | INDIA

A TRIDENT WEDDING

An Indian wedding is a celebration of many moments.

Each one has its own pace, emotion and importance. Some are planned down to the last detail. Some, quite wonderfully, take their own course. What matters is that every part is handled with care, so you can be present for all of it.

We put in every effort, so the wedding feels effortless for you and your loved ones.

At Trident, Nariman Point, the sheer scale of the Arabian Sea brings an effortless sense of calm to every celebration.

Overlooking the city's skyline, the hotel brings together panoramic views and versatile venues that adapt to the rhythm of your wedding. Each space has its own distinct personality, allowing guests to move smoothly from one chapter to the next.

We make sure the experience holds together perfectly from start to finish. Timings are watched, details are managed and plans stay gracefully on course, even when outfit changes take way longer than planned.

That is what makes a wedding here feel so seamless. The horizon takes your breath away and we take care of the rest.

EVERY MOMENT, RIGHT ON CUE

Different functions. Different vibes.
Somehow, all fitting together.

From sunlit haldi mornings to music-filled sangeet nights, from the anticipation of the jai mala to the quiet sanctity of the pheras, every moment finds its place. The celebration flows into grand receptions and after-parties that carry the joy a little longer.

Everything moves effortlessly from one chapter to the next, so you are not keeping track of plans. You are simply part of the celebration.

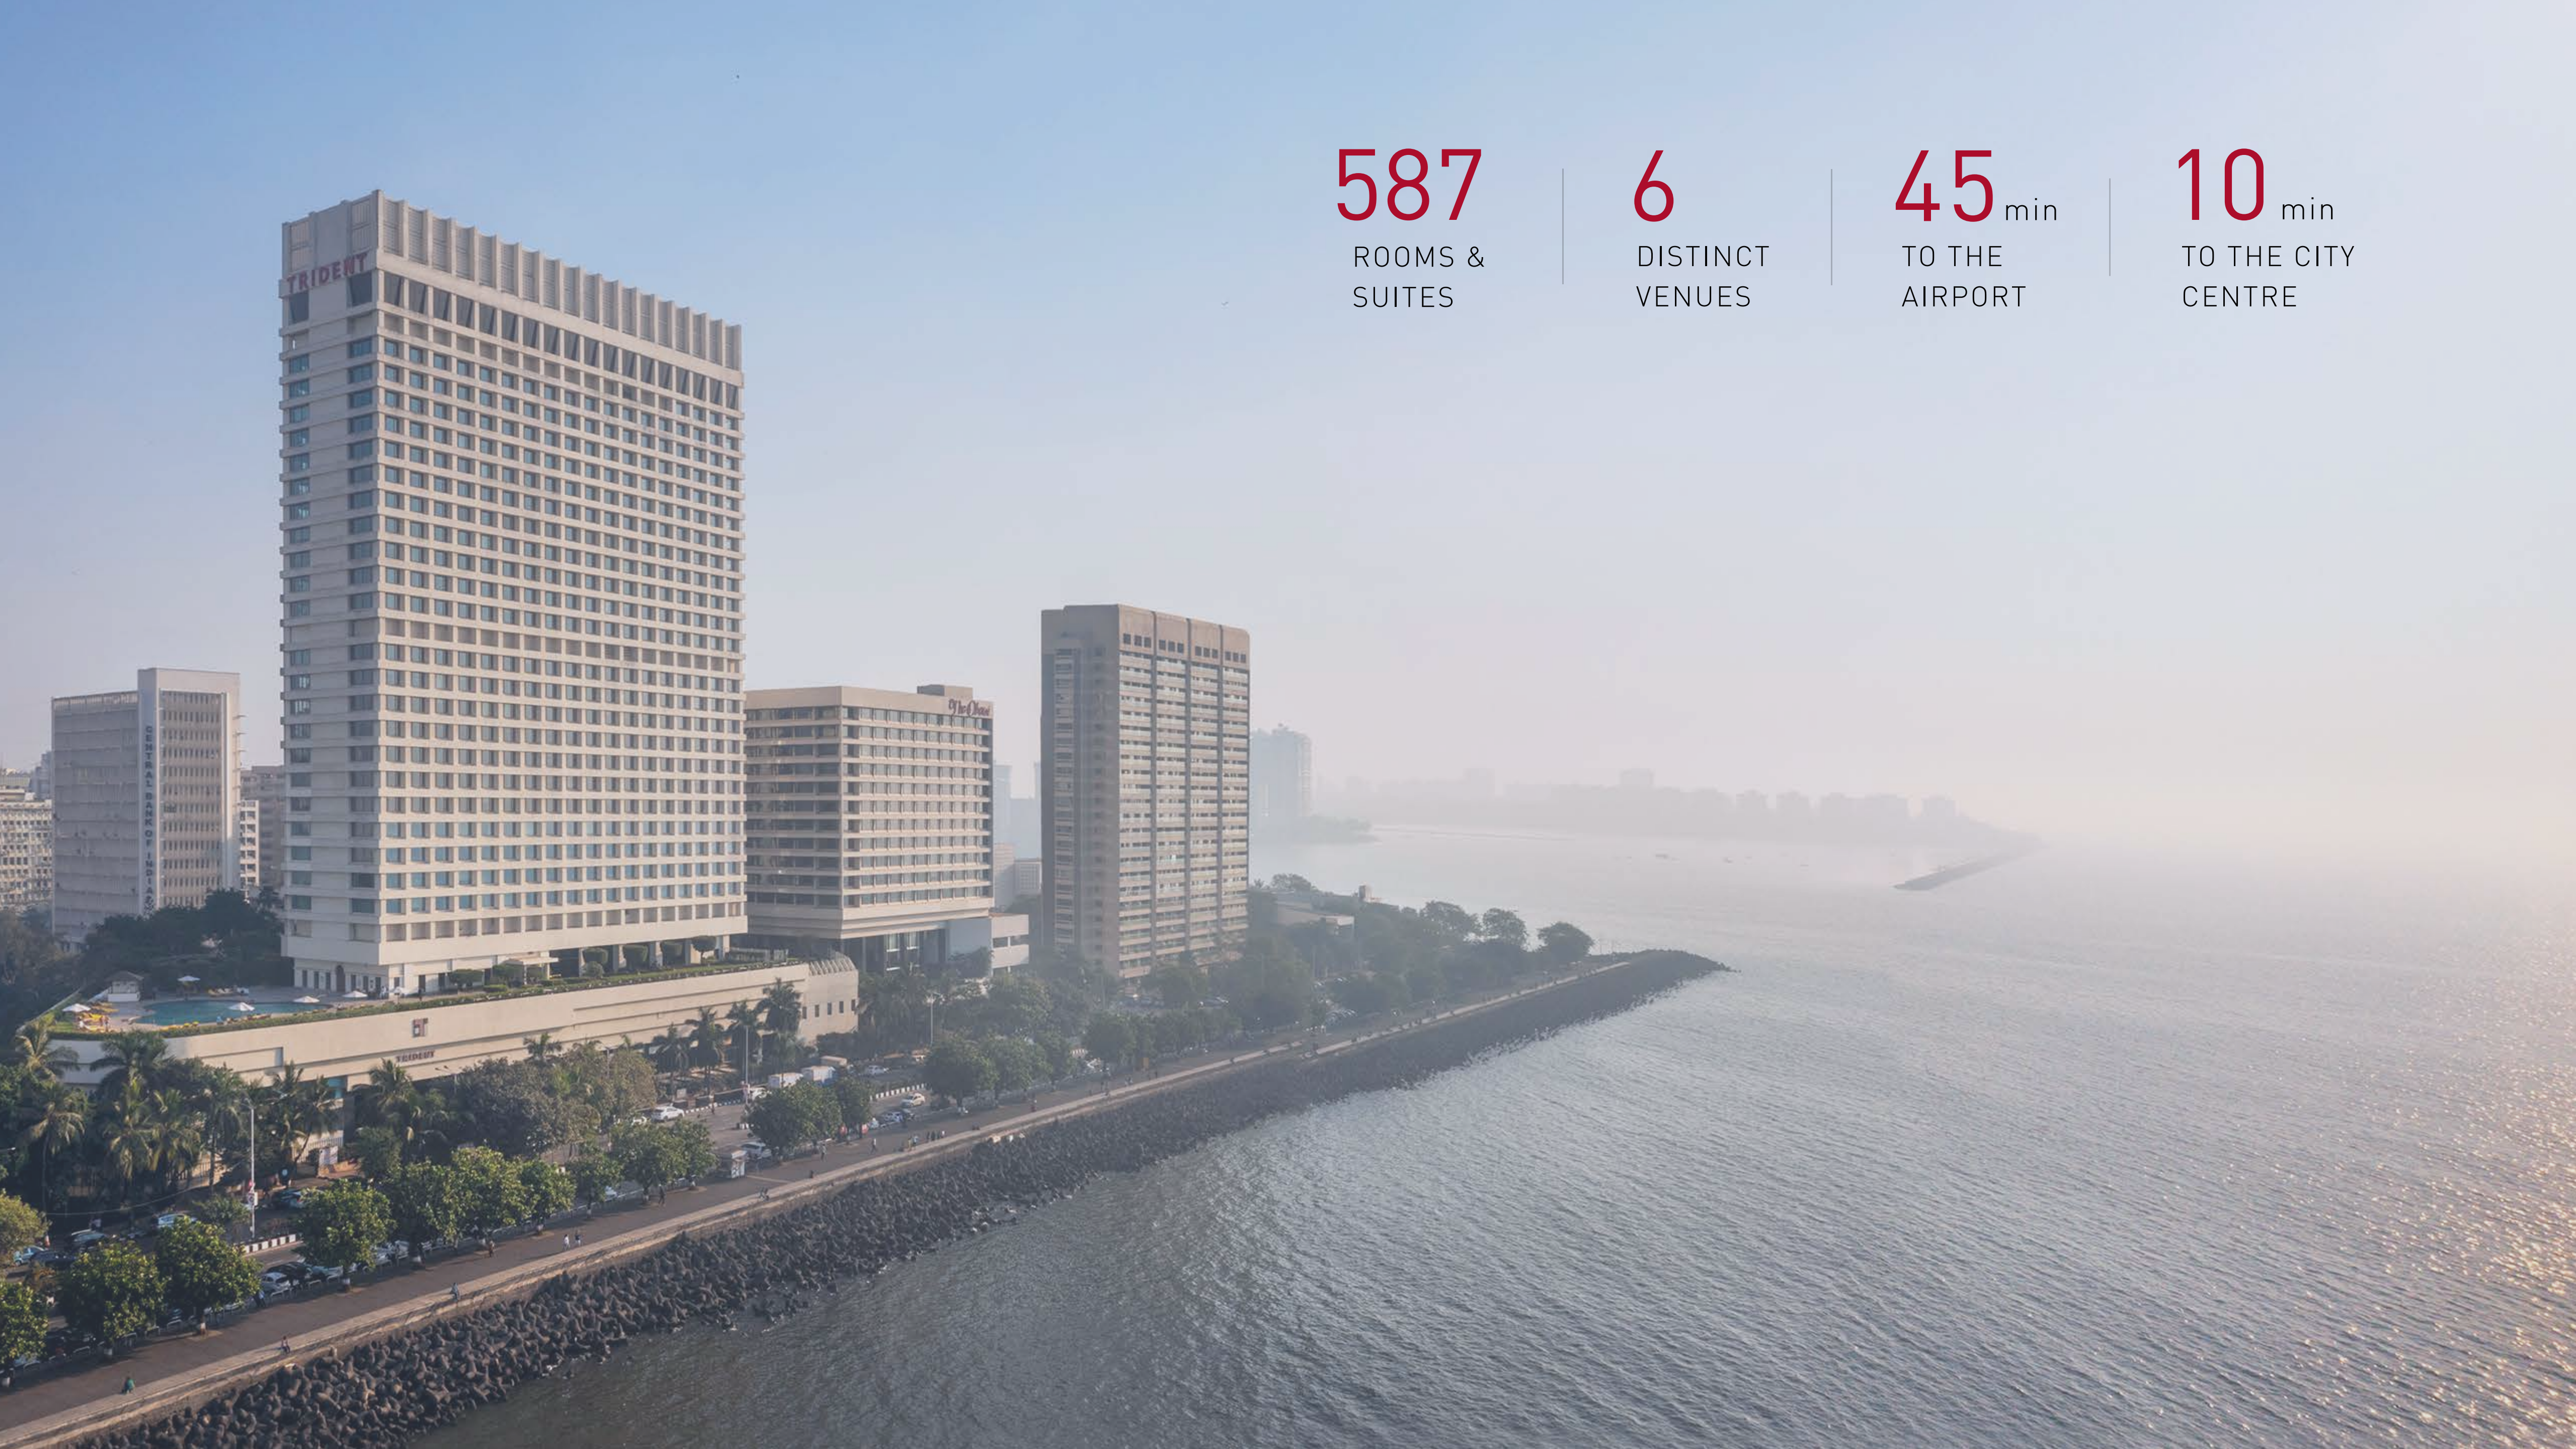

LESS PLANNING. MORE CELEBRATING.

You focus on the celebrations. Let us handle the rest.

We bring rooms, venues, food, service and coordination together so every function has what it needs. From arrivals and check-ins to the flow of events, we look after every detail with care, including the ones that, somehow, always appear at the last minute.

If you need support beyond the hotel, we are happy to suggest trusted local partners, including planners, photographers and decorators. We currently do not work with empanelled vendors, but we can guide you towards partners who regularly work with us.

REST BETWEEN THE REVELRY

Between two celebrations, everyone needs a moment to pause.

Our rooms and suites give your guests a calm place to return to after the day's events. A place to rest, get ready, gather themselves and step back into the celebrations refreshed.

Because even the most enthusiastic wedding guest needs a good night's sleep eventually.

CENTRE YOURSELF BEFORE TAKING CENTRE STAGE

An Indian wedding is a beautiful, joyous marathon. Between the heavy outfits, the endless flashes and the relatives you haven't seen in a decade, everyone eventually needs a moment to just press pause.

This is your sanctuary away from the stage. Steal a quiet hour for a restorative therapy at Trident Spa or let the experts at Silhouette Salon & Barbershop get you flawless for the evening ahead. Whether you need a soothing massage or simply a room to drink a coffee in peace, we make sure your downtime is protected.

A quiet hour behind the scenes, for a breathtaking return to the spotlight.

THE WORD SPREADS ABOUT THIS SPREAD

At a wedding, food gives every event its flavour. It is the breakfast before the haldi, the lunch everyone returns to, the dinner that stretches into conversation and the late-night bites guests are very grateful for.

Our chefs create menus across Indian and international cuisines, tailored to the way you want each event to feel. The focus is on familiar flavours, generous spreads, well-timed service and meals that feel considered from start to finish.

Because guests may forget the schedule, but they rarely forget a good meal.

MUMBAI, BEYOND THE CELEBRATIONS

In between the celebrations, there is a city waiting. A stroll along Marine Drive as the Queen's Necklace comes alive at dusk, a walk past the city's historic monuments and Art Deco architecture, or time spent exploring the art galleries and iconic cafés of the Kala Ghoda Arts District. We curate and arrange these experiences for you, so guests can see a little more of Mumbai and still be back in time for the next big moment.

We take care of all the planning, so time spent beyond the hotel feels just as easy.

The background image shows the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya, a large, ornate building with a prominent white dome and intricate architectural details. In the foreground, there is a large, abstract bronze sculpture of a face, tilted back, set on a pedestal. The scene is surrounded by lush greenery, including palm trees and manicured hedges, under a clear blue sky.
