A TRIDENT WEDDING

There's nothing understated about an Indian wedding.

It's loud, emotional, beautiful and full of moments that don't come with a rehearsal. Which is why it's never just about the venue. It's about how every moment is handled, held together and allowed to unfold just as it should.

At Trident, we don't just host your wedding. We make sure it feels effortless, leaving you free to simply enjoy each moment.

At Trident Udaipur, the view draws you in.
What holds everything together is us.

Overlooking Lake Pichola, the setting is unforgettable. We make sure everything else falls quietly into place. Nothing runs late, nothing feels rushed and nothing needs fixing.
Because the best weddings are not noticed for their planning. They are remembered for how easy they feel.

ALL YOUR CELEBRATIONS IN ONE PLACE

Different functions. Different vibes.
Somehow, all fitting together.

From sunlit haldi mornings to music-filled sangeet nights, from the anticipation of the jai mala to the quiet sanctity of the pheras, every moment finds its place. The celebration flows into grand receptions and after-parties that carry the joy a little longer.

Everything moves effortlessly from one chapter to the next, so you are not keeping track of plans. You are simply part of the celebration.

EVERYTHING TAKEN CARE OF

No moving parts to manage, no details left to chance.

From rooms to celebrations and every detail along the way, it all comes together under one roof with our team that is always a step ahead. So your experience feels uninterrupted from beginning to end.

We are always happy to suggest trusted partners, whether planners, photographers or decorators, to ensure everything comes together seamlessly. However, we currently do not work with empanelled vendors.

EVERY CELEBRATION, PERFECTLY SEASONED

Every memorable wedding begins with great food. But what makes it a wedding people remember is everything that happens at the table. The flavours, the spread and the way it all comes together.

From Indian specialities to continental and oriental cuisine, our chefs are happy to curate a menu that feels entirely yours. When the moment arrives, we ensure every detail from timing to service is already in place.

BEYOND THE WEDDING

In between the celebrations, there is a city waiting. Boat rides at sunset by Lake Pichola, a walk through old streets or a little time spent exploring local markets – all are experiences we curate for you beyond the hotel, so you can enjoy them without a second thought.

We take care of it all so nothing feels like an effort.
